

WA'GUUS

Sasuchan
DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

Background:

This agreement lays out the relationship between the Takla Nation and Sasuchan. This is used to explain how Chief, Council, and Sasuchan work together to achieve the goals of the Nation.

Principles:

- The Takla Nation, through Chief & Council, and Sasuchan work in the best interest of the Nation and share an economic development goal.
- Respect for each organization's roles and responsibilities.
- Understanding of strengths, experience and knowledge that everyone brings.

Chief & Council created Sasuchan as a business to:

- Develop Nation business activities;
- Attract wealth for the Nation;
- Support the social and community goals of the Nation
- Support the Nation through generating business that provides money to the Nation to support self-government and self-determination.

~ A cooperation practice based on our tradition of respect ~

ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES

TAKLA MEMBERSHIP

- Elect Chief & Council to represent economic development;
- Be informed of Sasuchan's business plan and finances as provided at community meetings;
- Provide input to the vision, approach and key actions in the Nation's inclusive plans.

CHIEF & COUNCIL

- Seek input from Nation Members and establish goals and priorities of the Nation;
- Elect eligible candidates to the Board of Directors;
- Review and provide input in Sasuchan's plans;
- Identify possible business opportunities and inform the Board/CEO through proper channels.

SASUCHAN BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- Act honestly and in good faith;
- Ensure Sasuchan is operating in alignment with the economic development priorities of the Nation;
- Ensure the CEO is following the strategic plan;
- Manage the operations of the BOD to ensure effectiveness with Takla Nation core beliefs and values.

